

Siddaju

Classification: I.G.T. Limbara hills

Variety: Nebbiolo 70% – 30% typical vineyards of Gallura

Municipality of Production: San Leonardo, Calangianus –
Sardegna (Italia)

Soil: Sandy, of disintegrated granite

Altitude: 350 slm

Yield per hectare: 35/40 q.li/ha

Breeding system: Controspalliera

Pruning system: Guyot

Breeding density: 4.500 p/ha

Harvest period: First 10 days of October

Winemaking: Fermentation for 30 days

Refinement: In barrells of 550 lt

Bottling period: June – July

Alcohol content: 14,50%

Color: Intense ruby-red with violet tones

Scent: Blackberry and blackcurrant jam with chocolate and tobacco

Palate: Soft, dense and elegant

To accompany: Red meat, game, aged cheeses

